JUNE 17, 1957.

Decisions Per Curiam.

No. 911. DOOLEY v. VIRGINIA. Appeal from the Supreme Court of Appeals of Virginia. Per Curiam: The motion to dismiss is granted and the appeal is dismissed for want of a substantial federal question. G. Galt Bready and James L. Dooley for appellant. J. Lindsay Almond, Jr., Attorney General of Virginia, and C. F. Hicks, Assistant Attorney General, for appellee. Reported below: 198 Va. 32, 92 S. E. 2d 348.